

Behavioral Threat Assessment

TEAM TRAINING EXERCISE

What is Behavioral Threat Assessment?

Behavioral Threat Assessment (BTA) is a fact-based, systematic process designed to identify, inquire, assess, and manage potentially dangerous or violent situations. BTA is crafted to gather a holistic picture of an individual that may be on a pathway to violence and to design a plan to mitigate harm and intervene effectively.

What Behavioral Threat Assessment is Not.

- Behavioral Threat Assessment is NOT a simple checklist of warning signs and red flags.
- Behavioral Threat Assessment is NOT criminally profiling individuals or conducting psychoanalysis.
- Behavioral Threat Assessment is NOT used to label students as trouble makers.
- Behavioral Threat Assessment is NOT used as a means to remove students from school systems.
- Behavioral Threat Assessment is NOT used to find the next school shooter.

Purpose of Exercise

The purpose of this exercise activity is to prepare Behavior Threat Assessment (BTA) team members to; effectively perform their individual role and responsibilities, collaborate as a member of the team, and consider information that culminates in a decision.

Scenario

PITCH PERFECT

Samantha is an 8th-grade student who is an exceptional vocalist in her school choir. A week before her All-State audition, she came down with strep throat. For several days, she tried everything she could to preserve her voice in the hope of still being able to audition. Her voice gave out on the day of the audition, and she was not selected for the All-State Choir. Samantha becomes very upset and emotionally distraught. She leaves a post on social media stating: "Life is not fair. All I want to do is sing. If I can't perform at All-State, I will make sure no one else will!"

BACKGROUND:

- Samantha has been prescribed an Antidepressant medication since grade 5
- The parents are both professional musicians
- Samantha is considered by staff and her parents as a perfectionist in everything she does
- Samantha has been selected for the All-State Choir every year since grade 6

IDEATION	Notes, information, and general considerations
Is there a real or perceived grievance? If so, identify the grievance.
Is there a history or pattern with violence?
Does a risk of danger exist?
Is the individual expressing thoughts or fantasies considering violence to address their grievance?

NOTE: Many people have occasional or fleeting thoughts of violence but do not act, we should still be alert of the possibility and that the individual may be struggling with a grievance of some sort.

Decision:

PLANNING	Notes, information, and general considerations
Are there details revealed; i.e. who, what, when?
Expressions referenced in timing, location, targets, means, etc.?
Research and references being relayed on how?
Has the individual begun obtaining information on materials and weapons?

NOTE: Research and references alone do not constitute that an individual is planning an attack.

Decision:

PREPARATION	Notes, information, and general considerations
Are steps being taken to execute the acts of violence?
Has the individual made attempts to obtain materials, clothing, tools to fulfill their plans?
Has the individual attempted dry runs or to alter plans to overcome potential obstacles or challenges that would prevent them from carrying out their plan?
Have boundaries or restricted areas been tested?

NOTE: This stage is beyond just acquiring weapons, this stage involves attempts to prepare for the violent act.

Decision:

IMPLEMENTATION	Notes, information, and general considerations
What clues, facts, indicators are present that the threat is imminent?
What indicators are present that the individual has moved from Ideation to Implementation?
What resources and partners are readily available?
What resources are available to stop the act of violence?

NOTE: This step may be expedited by a sense of desperation, or influences of others encouraging escalation through social media or direct communication.
