Scenario: Teachers and support staff are preparing for the school day early Thursday morning. An announcement comes over the intercom asking everyone to report to the cafeteria for an impromptu meeting. When everyone has gathered the principal explains that she has received word from contacts in the community that a fatal vehicular accident has occurred this morning in town involving multiple cars. Among those people allegedly involved in the accident is Mr. Byron, the beloved choral teacher; and second grader Delilah Sampson.

Around 9 am, the principal informs teachers individually that it was student Delilah Sampson who passed away earlier this morning in the multi-vehicle car accident. Mr. Byron has been taken to the local hospital for observation.
